

bet-at-home.com AG: bet-at-home.com AG received admission to the Regulated Market of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange (“Prime Standard”) bet-at-home.com AG received admission to the “Prime Standard” segment of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange by Deutsche Börse AG today, which will become effective on 11. August 2016.

With the approved change from the Entry Standard to the Prime Standard and through compliance with the highest transparency requirements it is intended to increase the attractiveness of the bet-at-home.com share (ISIN DE000A0DNAY5 / WKN A0DNAY) in order to strengthen the confidence placed in it and to attract a higher level of attention from both private and institutional investors – especially those institutional investors who have to fulfill regulatory requirements and are permitted to invest only in shares listed in the Regulated Market.

Therefore bet-at-home.com AG fulfills a major requirement for being included in one of the selective indices of Deutsche Börse AG.

About bet-at-home.com bet-at-home.com AG Group is an online gaming and sports betting company. With almost 4.5 million registered customers around the world, the Group, which is listed at the stock exchange in Frankfurt, along with its subsidiaries is one of the most successful online gaming providers in Europe. The varied options offered on www.bet-at-home.com include sports betting, poker, casino, games and virtual sports. bet-at-home.com has companies in Germany, Austria, Malta and Gibraltar.
