Mag. Wolfgang Reisinger

Candidate for election to the Supervisory Board

Mag. Wolfgang Reisinger, born on October 31, 1982, in Linz, is Managing Director (COO/CFO) of Tractive GmbH in Pasching. He completed his studies in Social Economics at Johannes Kepler University Linz (Master's degree rer. soc. oec.) and additionally obtained the qualification of European Management Accountant (EMA) from WIFI.

Since October 2014, he has been responsible, as COO/CFO, for the overall operational management of Tractive GmbH as well as key corporate functions such as Finance, Operations, Customer Experience, and Human Resources, with a focus on corporate management, organizational development, and the scaling of structures and processes. He has also played a key role in capital measures, M&A activities, and in relations with investors and shareholders.

From November 2010 to October 2014, he worked as an Audit Assistant Manager at KPMG in Linz, focusing on annual audits, international financial reporting (IFRS), and the auditing of internationally active, partly listed companies. In addition, he is active as a business angel, investing in technology-oriented companies with a focus on valuation, financing, and strategic development.

Mr. Reisinger is fully independent of the Company, its Management Board, and controlling shareholders within the meaning of the German Corporate Governance Code. He meets the statutory requirements for familiarity with the sector pursuant to Section 100 (5) AktG and, moreover, possesses expertise in the field of accounting and auditing within the meaning of this provision.
