

End of Year result

Düsseldorf, 30th June 2006

The supervisory board of bet-at-home.com AG has approved the provisional numbers as the final result, having thus declared the consolidated accounts and annual financial statement for bet-at-home.com AG. KPMG in Düsseldorf (Germany) gave the company an unreserved audit certificate.

The audited consolidated accounts of bet-at-home.com AG show a turnover of 40,23 million euro, given the pro rata consolidation of the acquired daughter company bet-at-home.com Entertainment AG in Linz, Austria (as from 30 May 2005 – moment of acquisition). Furthermore, the result amounts to -218.79 thousand euro.

The pro forma company management ratios (full consolidation as from 1 January 2005) remain the same and amount to:

Net sales:	68,959 Mio Euro
EBT:	+ 454 TEUR
EBITDA:	+ 596 TEUR

Furthermore, bet-at-home.com AG is very content with the present business development in the financial year 2006.

In the month June 2006, more than 100,000 new users have registered with the daughter companies. The majority of these new users are from Poland, Czech Republic, Turkey and Greece. The online horse race company Racebets.com (40 % share holding) also develops very well. Business started in the month May 2006 and a broad marketing campaign has already attracted substantially active user database.

The annual business report for the financial year 2005 shall be published shortly on our homepage www.bet-at-home.ag.

The management board

For more information, please contact
Mr G. Schmitt, management board
Telephone: +49(0)21117934770
Fascimile: +49(0)211-17934757
ir@bet-at-home.com