

AD-HOC INFORMATION

DISCLOSURE OF AN INSIDE INFORMATION ACC. TO ARTICLE 17 MAR OF THE REGULATION (EU) No 596/2014

Düsseldorf, 27 June 2022

bet-at-home.com Group loses legal dispute in Switzerland over network blocks / Forecast adjusted

bet-at-home.com Internet Limited, Malta, a subsidiary of bet-at-home.com AG (hereinafter also the "Company"), has so far also offered online sports betting in Switzerland. The Intercantonal Gaming Authority Gespa had issued a blocking order (network blocking) against the offer, against which appeals were lodged. The Swiss Federal Supreme Court has now rejected the appeal against this in the last instance.

After discussion with the legal advisors of the bet-at-home.com Group, the Management Board decided to close the access from Switzerland.

The Executive Board had previously expected gross betting and gaming revenue of between EUR 50 million and EUR 60 million and EBITDA of between EUR -2 million and EUR 2 million for the 2022 financial year. Due to various recent adverse legal and regulatory developments (see also ad hoc announcement of 3 June 2022), the Executive Board now expects the Group's gross betting and gaming revenue for the 2022 financial year to be between EUR 45 million and EUR 50 million and EBITDA between EUR -2 million and EUR -4,5 million.
