

bet-at-home.com AG plans to change to the Entry Standard at the Frankfurt Stock Exchange

Together with renowned advisors bet-at-home.com AG is currently finalizing the stock exchange prospectus and plans to submit this prospectus to the Federal Agency for Financial Market Supervision (BaFin) for approval shortly to assure the scheduled change to the Entry Standard at the Frankfurt Stock Exchange at the 15th of December 2012.

About bet-at-home.com

The company has an online gaming licence issued from Malta owing to having wholly-owned companies. With more than three million registered customers from all over Europe at the current time, the company, which is listed on both the Frankfurt and Vienna Stock Exchanges, is one of the most popular providers of betting in Europe. There are offices of bet-at-home.com in Malta, Germany and Austria. The range of services provided on www.bet-at-home.com encompasses sports betting, casino games and poker.

Contact

bet-at-home.com AG
Franz Ömer
Kronprinzenstraße 82-84
D-40217 Düsseldorf
ir@bet-at-home.com
www.bet-at-home.ag